WEMYSS BLENDED MALTS – "Spice King" 12 Year Old

The Wemyss family has had a longstanding passion for malt whisky and their connections with the industry date back to the turn of the 19th century when John Haig (founder of Haig's) built his first distillery on Wemyss land.

Even today barley from the Wemyss Estate is prized by many of the leading distillers, and Cameron Bridge distillery is located just a few miles from the castle itself.

With this passion came the gradual realization that, even for the knowledgeable consumer, much of the malt whisky terminology can be confusing. Our range of hand crafted malts was conceived with the aim of making them more accessible and understandable.

We use the taste and aromas of the individual whiskies to identify each bottling, rather than the distillery, so the consumer can more easily understand the style being purchased.

Up to sixteen different single malt whiskies are expertly blended together before introducing the "signature" malts to create three distinct taste profiles under Charles Maclean's guidance: 'Spicy' (Spice King), 'Peaty' (Peat Chimney) and 'Honeyed" (The Hive).

DESCRIPTION

Color: Golden bronze

Aroma: Intense, rich and full. Sweet exotic spices of cinnamon, ginger and star anise encased in a sandalwood chest.

Taste: Initially, baked apples stuffed with sultanas dusted with cinnamon and stem ginger. Warming intensifies the spice, with the heat of freshly ground peppercorns and a gentle earthy smoke.

Finish: Sizzling spices leave their impression ending on an earthy dryness.
