

Bodegas Callia

Wine Region: San Juan, Argentina Date Established: 2003 Winemaker: José Rubén Morales

Bodegas Callia's mission is to produce the best wines in San Juan while respecting and supporting the people, nature and community from which the wines are created. Bodegas Callia is situated in the Tulum valley in Argentina's province of San Juan. At 2,100 feet above sea level, the area is blessed with ideal climate, low rainfall and sandy alluvial and clay loam soil. The result is intense, fruit-forward wines that reflect the rich terroir of this region.

Born of legend, Bodegas Callia is named for a young woman who cherished San Juan as a paradise endowed with abundant fruits despite the desert landscape.

- CALLIA ALTA MALBEC Delicate aromas of cherries, plums and spices. Good structure with an elegant, well-balanced mouthfeel and a lingering finish.
- CALLIA ALTA SHIRAZ Complex aromas of red berries and exotic spices. Its impressive palate has excellent structure, silky tannins and a long finish. "Best Buy" – Wine Enthusiast, December 31, 2013.
- CALLIA ALTA PINOT GRIGIO Aromas of pink grapefruit, flowers and eucalyptus. It is well-balanced with crisp acidity and a pleasant finish.
- CALLIA ALTA TORRONTÉS Delicate floral notes of roses and orange blossom. Exotic, smooth structure with a well balanced acidity. "Best Buy" – Wine Enthusiast, October 2014.
- CALLIA RESERVADO TORRONTÉS Aromas of flowers, orange, and lemon.
- CALLIA BELLA 60% Syrah, 40% Malbec. Juicy plum, fresh cherry-mocha—an enticing, structured and slightly sweet wine from Argentina.

- Bodegas Callia is located in the Tulum Valley in the province of San Juan, Argentina's second largest wine growing region
- San Juan enjoys one of the sunniest climates in the world, with no more than 30 days of cloud-covered sky each year
- Callia's two estates encompass over 700 acres of vineyards producing fruit-forward, youthful wines that reflect the rich terroir of the region
- Callia's premium, elegant packaging and numerous BEST BUY awards uphold its reputation as a world-class Argentine wine producer
