Michel Lynch, born in 1754, was Mayor of Pauillac during the French Revolution and also one of the leading figures in the significant progress in winemaking that took place in the late 18th century. His estate at Bages was renamed Lynch Bages and later included in the famous 1855 classification of great growths. Jean-Michel Cazes, the current owner of Lynch Bages, decided to honor Michel Lynch by giving his name to a refined Bordeaux wine selected from the best terroir in the area.

Michel Lynch wines perfectly embody both modern and traditional aspects of Bordeaux winemaking. They are elegant, stylish and affordable. Michel Lynch wines are ideal for wine lovers who want to enjoy rich, elegant Bordeaux wines without having to wait.

The Michel Lynch winemaking team does everything in their power to make the best possible Bordeaux in every vintage. They combine concentrated flavor, softness and charm and offer outstanding value at an affordable price.
