

MONDORO

Wine Region: ASTI, ITALY

Date Established: 1989

Winemaker: IVO DESTEFANIS

Mondoro is a super premium Asti, considered by wine experts to be the “World’s Finest”, and has won numerous gold medals for its taste and quality.

Mondoro is produced from 100% white moscato grapes from the vineyards located in the Asti province in the Piedmont region of Northern Italy. Mondoro’s prestigious fluted, green glass bottle and striking gold and marbled label make it the luxury choice for Asti lovers.

Mondoro has a delicately sweet character which makes a delightful and refreshing drink. The combination of the best quality grapes coupled with the most careful vinification create an outstanding sparkling wine.

Asti is one of the most popular sparkling wine categories in the United States today, with consumers seduced by its sweet and enticing effervescence. Mondoro, a super premium wine of extraordinary character and finesse, is well positioned to become a favorite.

When looking to celebrate with the best, Mondoro’s superior elegant taste is the ideal choice for any occasion. Celebrate life with the world’s finest Asti!

MONDORO ASTI:

Aromas of honeysuckle, peaches and pears. Distinctly sweet fruit flavors that conclude with a clean and refreshing acidity.

MONDORO

