 Date Established: 1880 Winemaker: CECILIA TORRES, ANDREAS ILABACA, AND CARLOS GATICA

Heritage and enterprise are hallmarks of Santa Rita, one of Chile's premier wine estates. Founded in 1880 in Chile's Maipo Valley, this historic property was among the first to pioneer plantings of European grape varieties in Chile. In 1980, it was acquired by the late Ricardo Claro, under whom Santa Rita reaped the rewards of continuous investment, resulting in impressive growth, during which the winery has consolidated its position in the vanguard of Chile's most successful and innovative estates.

Initiatives include the highly successful launch of Santa Rita's 120 Series Medalla Real Range and Reserva wines, and a selection of ultra-premium wines, notably the highly acclaimed Casa Real, Triple C, Medalla Real, and Pehuen. Wide-ranging enhancements include the purchase of choice new vineyards, plantings with top quality clones, improved trellising and irrigation, balanced viticulture, restricted yields, later harvesting, individual block farming, small-lot vinification, and an increased emphasis on sustainable agriculture. Winemaker Cecilia Torres was recently named "Chilean Winemaker of the Year", the first woman ever to receive this honor.

Santa Rita today is a top selling Chilean brand in the U.S. The property accounts for outstanding vineyards in Chile's most important appellations – the Maipo Valley; Apalta; Casablanca; Rapel; Leyda and Colchagua – enabling access to diverse climates and terrain. Visitors to Santa Rita can look forward to accommodation at the estate's luxury hotel, the Casa Real, with its spectacular 100-acre gardens, its magnificent museum housing a breathtaking collection of pre-Columbian artifacts, or enjoy dinner at the property's landmark restaurant, the Doña Paula.

The Santa Rita winery was named "Winery of the Year 2008" by Wine & Spirits Magazine. Visit us at santarita.com for more information.
