Distilleria Bottega was founded nearly 40 years ago by master distiller Aldo Bottega. Since 1983, Sandro Bottega, Aldo's son, has owned and operated the family business which has grown to include the production of world-renowned grappa, sparkling and still wines, liqueurs, specialty food products, and a glass-blowing facility. Sandro's vibrant personality which has helped build and drive his company into a world-wide success with distribution in more than 100 countries. His sister, Barbara, and brother, Stefano, are also involved and share his passion for developing their family business.

Distilleria Bottega produces unique sparkling wines including Petalo "Il Vino dell'Amore" Moscato Spumante and the Bottega Sparkling Collection.

Petalo "Il Vino dell'Amore" Moscato Spumante, the "Wine of Love," is a delicately sweet sparkling wine crafted from Moscato grapes grown in northeast Italy's Colli Euganei region, nestled between two fabled cities of love — Verona and Venice.

The Bottega Sparkling Collection is a selection of super-premium sparkling wines inspired by Venice, Italy's most romantic city. Unified by its chic, metallic packaging, the Bottega Sparkling Collection exudes elegance and luxury.

In recent years, Distilleria Bottega has implemented numerous eco-friendly programs. These initiatives include organic farming, recycling and use of eco-friendly packaging.
