

FAZI BATTAGLIA

VERDICCHIO

COUNTRY Italy

APPELLATION Le Marche

REGION Le Marche

WINEMAKER Mirco Pompili

GRAPES Verdicchio

BACKGROUND

Created in 1949, in the Le Marche region of Italy, Fazi Battaglia is the premier shareholder of estate vineyards within the Castelli di Jesi DOC. These wines epitomize Italian style: fresh, elegant and distinctive. Their flagship amphora shaped bottle is an iconic symbol of the winery and territory.

DESCRIPTION

COLOR: Straw yellow

NOSE: Aromas of apple, pear, and aniseed

TASTE: A rich palate with notes of almonds and a touch of minerality.

VINIFICATION

Produced in the Classico area of Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi. Made exclusively from Verdicchio grapes grown on the beautiful hillside vineyards owned by the winery. Grapes are hand harvested. The grapes are gently pressed, followed by cold maceration of the must. Fermentation takes place in stainless steel tanks at 14-16°C, followed by 4 months of aging on the lees to add crispness.

ANALYSIS

Alcohol: 12.5% TA: 6.1 pH: 3.4

SERVING SUGGESTIONS

A great aperitif wine served alongside marcona almonds, prosciutto, savory tarts, potato-cheese puff pastries, quiche and savory soufflés.

BOTTLE SIZES

750 ml

 PALM BAY
INTERNATIONAL
A TAUB FAMILY COMPANY

© 2020 PALM BAY INTERNATIONAL INC | WWW.PALMBAY.COM